

Curriculum Vitae

Ing. Milena Jindřichová (maiden name: Smetanová)

e-mail: milenasmetanova@gmail.com

Education:

Since 2012 PhD. studies, FTA CULS Prague, Tropical Agrobiology and bioresource Management

2009 – 2012 MSc. studies, ITS CULS Prague, Wildlife Management

2006 – 2009 BSc. studies, ITS CULS Prague

Internships:

May 2014 Galago sp. bucal swab sample collection, Fathala Reserve, Senegal

2010 International student exchange, Erasmus, University of Plovdiv, Bulgaria

Employment:

since 11/2018 technician, Laboratory of molecular biology, FTA, CULS

since 2017 technician in Laboratory of molecular biology, FTA, CULS – project GAMA TAČR – A test kit for genetic origin of dogs

2011 - 2014 Veterinary nurse, veterinary clinic LIVE Litoměřice

Awards:

2016 - Rector's Award in the category Award for staff, scientific publications, publication - From Wolves to Dogs, and Back: Genetic Composition of the Czechoslovakian Wolfdog

2015 - Rector's Award in the category Award for staff, popularizing publications, publication - Velké šelmy na Moravě a ve Slezsku

Projects:

Co-investigator of grants funded by Czech University of Life Sciences Prague Foundation (CIGA, IGA)

20175018 - Vliv mezidruhových interakcí na evoluci druhu (IGA FTZ 2017)

20165015 - Detekce populační struktury a zjištění úrovně izolovanosti malých populací pomocí genetických markerů (IGA FTZ 2016)

20155014 - Genetická diverzita ohrožených druhů živočichů ve fragmentované krajině (IGA FTZ 2015)

20145027 - Fylogeneze a populační struktura antilop rodu Taurotragus (IGA FTZ 2014)

20134311 - Species determination of bushbabies of the genus Galago (Primates: Galagidae) integrating genetic and acoustic data (CIGA 1/2013-12/2015)