

Curriculum vitae

Ing. Hana Uhlíková, Ph.D.

Affiliation: Czech University of Life Sciences
Faculty of Forestry and Wood Sciences, Kamýcká 129,
165 21 Prague 6, the Czech Republic

Electronic mail: uhlikova@fld.czu.cz

Date of Birth: June 29th, 1983

Education:

2007 – 2012 Czech University of Life Sciences
Ph.D. Study at the Faculty of Forestry and Wood Sciences
Branch: Forest protection and Game management
Graduation in May 2012

2009 – 2010 University of Eastern Finland, Joensuu, Finland
International Study Programme in Environmental Science and Forestry

2005 – 2007 Czech University of Life Sciences
Engineering study at the Faculty of Forestry and Environment
Branch: Applied Ecology
Graduation in June 2007

2002 – 2005 Czech University of Life Sciences
Bachelor study at the Faculty of Forestry and Environment
Branch: Applied Ecology
Graduation in June 2005

Key qualifications: Ph.D., Forest protection and Game management, Czech University of Life Sciences, 2012

Works experience in last 3 years:

2010 until now University technician at the Office for Science and Research, FFWS

2011 – 2012 Project manager at the Department of Forest Protection and Game Management, FFWS

Relevant research activities:

2007 – 2011 Member of the research team of the research project: The using of dendrochronology for reconstruction of fluctuation pattern of nun moth and gypsy moth in the central Europe. NAZV – Ministry of Agriculture of the ČR

2011 – 2012 Member of the research team of the research project: The study of real efficiency of control measures against Ips typographus in various gradation phases. NAZV – Ministry of Agriculture of the ČR

Membership of Research Societies:

1998 until now Czech Society of Ornithology (partner of Birdlife International)